Once the UNDAF is agreed, it is signed by the Government and all UN entities. The RC sends the signed UNDAF to all partners and to the chair of the UNDG. The completed UNDAFs are posted on the UNDG website.

Consultations with all relevant national partners, including the government coordinating authority, potential implementing partners, CSOs, targeted community groups, donors, UN agencies and multilateral and bilateral organizations are essential throughout programme development.